

Far Meadow Farm

presents

Lendon Gray

Saturday April 14, 2012

Lendon Gray, the United States Dressage Federation inductee into the Roemer Foundation/USDF Hall of Fame, will give a day of Dressage lessons at Far Meadow Farm, Morris CT. Open to riders of any level.

SPACE IS LIMITED - RESERVE EARLY

45 minute private $175.00

45 minute semi-private (2 riders) $125.00 per rider

1 hour group (3 riders) $100.00 per rider

Auditors welcome

For reservations call: (860)567-9850

Lendon Gray has made a significant impact through many facets of the sport.

As an international rider, she has represented the U.S. in the Alternate Olympic Games of 1980, the Seoul Olympics in 1988, and the 1991 World Cup in Paris. Nationally, Lendon has won five gold medals at U.S. Olympic Festivals on five different horses of varying breeds. As a teacher and instructor, Lendon has provided an array of educational and competitive opportunities for youth through Dressage4Kids. Lendon has been actively involved in numerous committees within USDF, the United States Equestrian Federation and the United States Equestrian Team. Through her dedication and devoted energies in improving all riders and horses, Lendon has and continues to provide numerous opportunities for others to learn and improve.

Far Meadow Farm is a full service boarding and training facility located in Morris, CT, 3 miles south of Litchfield.

www.FarMeadowFarm.com